

TEEN PEACEBUILDERS

PeaceBuilders is a week-long summer leadership workshop for middle and high school students attending schools in under-resourced and high-poverty neighborhoods. This workshop will provide opportunities for youth to develop their skills in self-awareness, conflict resolution, violence prevention, advocacy and leadership.

The collaborative learning activities will address significant topics such as substance use, gangs, violence & racism. As a final project, the youth will design plans to use the PeaceBuilders approach at their schools in the fall. Triad Restorative Justice is working on grants to provide staff and support for these plans throughout the school year.

FUNDING

Our aim is to raise $5000 from corporate sponsors and individual donors to provide the Teen PeaceBuilders workshop in the summer of 2019. Triad Restorative Justice is a 501(c)3 registered non-profit.
